1.1 Exclusions

Governors and Staff will endeavour to provide appropriate support for all pupils. However, a fixed term or permanent exclusion may result from the actions of any pupil(s). To this extent any decision to exclude;

- will comply with the terms of current School, LEA and Welsh Assembly guidelines (WAG Evidence Document No: 081/2012)
- will be regarded as a last resort at the end of a hierarchy of response escalation
- or, will be an immediate response to an act of behaviour, or situation, which is totally unacceptable to the school, and occurs during school hours or in extended provision (e.g. school clubs). This could include;
 - physical aggression to pupils, teachers and other employees
 - verbal abuse of pupils, teachers and other employees
 - threatening behaviour towards teachers and other employees
 - bullying of other pupils (including cyber-bullying)
 - theft
 - damage to property
 - drug abuse and / or drug dealing
 - use or threatened use of an offensive weapon
 - refusal to accept punishment or comply with school rules
 - indecent assault
 - racism

This list is not exhaustive.

All Cases

Whilst guided by this policy and all other guidelines, each case will be treated on their individual merit which may lead to a Fixed- Term Exclusion or Permanent Exclusion

Fixed-Term Exclusion

The decision to sanction a fixed-term exclusion can be made by the Headteacher or in his absence the most senior teacher may exercise the power of exclusion.

Permanent Exclusion

A decision to exclude a learner permanently will usually be the final step in a process for dealing with disciplinary offences following a wide range of other strategies, which have been tried without success.

There may be exceptional circumstances where in the headteacher's judgement it is appropriate to permanently exclude a learner for a first or one-off offence.

Exclusion Procedure

The School will follow the Welsh Government Guidance in the event of a permanent exclusion ((Guidance Document No. 081/2012). This is supplemented by Local Authority Guidance.
